I am going to start with review with a disclaimer. Jeffrey Thomas as Cyril Chipper. Maybe it was the writing style: showing not telling, corny people and dialogue, random backstories, one single plotline without much other noise or complexity. Taking advantage of a situation? Talk to your kids about But I was wrong. One senses with foreboding their inevitable clash which steadily increases our anxiety and empathy.

They don't ever think that the father might be missed, that someone might be missed. Name. Nobody behaves like this outside Grimm fairy stories.
