German Film Museum Frankfurt Bestseller. English Theatre Plays.

Today, the towers sit on a traffic island in a bustling intersection, with a cacophony of sounds. However, there is something to suit every interest, from the German Film Museum, to the Icon Museum, the Architecture Museum, the Liebieghaus with its classical sculptures, the Communication Museum and the Museum of Applied Arts with furniture dating to the 10th century. It is a crisp and alcoholic apple cider that is locally produced in the regions around Frankfurt. Several temporary exhibitions rotate through the facility, each developing on a more specific theme, perhaps one movie or a single director.

After all, you're in the land of the Frankfurter! Please enter your destination. This melting pot has contributed to the city shedding its formerly staid reputation; few cities in Europe can match Frankfurt for the diversity both of its people and its attractions.
