C Jay Griffiths is a self-confessed romantic, believing in the innate purity of children and a need for them to be close to nature, mystery and risk and be gloriously free. Her explanatory reach regularly exceeds her intellectual grasp. ThankyouforsigninguptothePenguinNewsletter. One central riddle, in particular, captured her imagination: Why are so many children in Euro-American cultures unhappy -- and why is it that children in many traditional cultures seem happier? Her easy and intelligent writing style makes it a joy to read; I have enjoyed other of her books and writings in 'Orion' magazine for several years and think even more of her since reading this work.
