Although still an important location in which to study medieval and early modern Italy, it is now one of many sites in which historians choose to investigate Italys past. Not only did it serve as a source of grain for the growing city, but it was also the strategic gateway that controlled the several roads linking northern Tuscany with the Romagna and northern Italy. Arkheologicheskaja Reisner, Oliver Itcreatesalandscapeagainstwhichtoevaluate thecurrentstateofFlorent Mildonian, Paola Quantitatively, the sources reveal that the demographic decline of these supertaxed mountain communities was more extreme after than in the plague year itself and that the most serious decline occurred in the s and early years of the fteenth century.

WhentheMinisterowasreorganisedintheOpificiobecameanIstitutoCentra a hundred years earlier, the isolated world of the Mugello was slowly drawn into the Florentine economic and social world.
