Future prime minister Winston Churchill wore a French one during his time on the front in Serbia's reply failed to satisfy the Austrians, and the two moved to a war footing. The German leadership hoped to end the war before significant US forces arrived. The Czechoslovak Legion fought on the side of the Entente. As the years passed, hatred of the Versailles treaty and its authors settled into a smoldering resentment in Germany that would, two decades later, be counted among the causes of World War II.

The majority of WW1 was fought in muddy trenches but one group of miners dug underground. The minimum height requirement for the British Army was 5ft 3ins, but many shorter men were caught up in the recruiting enthusiasm of August and were keen to enlist. When the war began, however, it declared its neutrality, arguing that because Austria-Hungary had itself declared war on Serbia, Romania was under no obligation to join the war.
