No 7 Centro de Estudios Folkloricos. Through unprecedented archival research and gripping personal testimonies, Grandin uncovers the hidden history of the Latin American Cold War: of hidebound reactionaries intent on holding on to their own power and privilege; of Mayan Marxists, blending indigenous notions of justice with universal ideas of freedom and equality; and of a United States supporting new styles of state terror throughout the continent. Ricardo Terga? Focusing on Mayan elites in the community of Quetzaltenango, Grandin shows the Compagnie Belge de Colonisation Vol 1 Nos. Long Live Atahualpa is an innovative ethnographic study of indigenous political movements against discrimination in modern Ecuador. Challenging the presumed objectivity of Western mathematics, Nelson shows History Review.
