Justin rated it it was amazing Sep 01, Published by Papercutz Shelvingmenu. This was pulp for kids, and I'll bet a lot of us were prepped for it. Can the boys figure out who took it? McFarlane breathed originality into the Stratemeyer plots, loading on playful. Not that the books were high literature to begin with, but starting in the first thirty-eight stories were revised and somewhat abridged gutted, bowlderized, bleached of colour and white-washed are other terms that come to mind much to the dismay of long-time Hardy fans. Lobdell will have readers enjoying every moment of this entertaining adventure. Izumi has gone missing! Word Up!
