But this is the first article I have found that explains constant and chronic depression this well, and I fully intend on sharing this with. Thank you. I'm concerned. There is a cure and a reason why people get. Maybe something similar could bring relief to others who have given up believing exercise can be that helpful. It's bad enough to be depressed and not have people understand you but to go through something like this could make a person further depressed by itself! Please seek out the help of a psychiatrist, and get a case worker or counselor. I started feeling it was dangerous to go out with others to inconvenience them and for myself afraid to be attacked.
