It made little impact when first published but is currently the subject of renewed interest in the context of women's studies with recent translations into English French Italian and Spanish. Bookplate to front pastedown. Pythagoras and Pythagoreanism are treated on an extraordinarily large scale, though not yet in the mystagogical way of a Porphyry, or an Iamblichus; Empedocles included among the PythagoreansHeraclitus, and Democritus are presented in fairly long sections.
